[P]LAN DRIVE IN ORGANIZED LABOR

[W]m. Z. Foster, Radical Leader, Says Unique Campaigns Are Against Gompers and Rail Union Heads

[C]HICAGO, March 1. — William [F]oster, successor to "Big Bill" [Hay]wood as the foremost radical [in t]he country, has launched what [he] declares to be "a campaign [uniq]ue in the history of labor"

[It] is directed against Samuel [Gom]pers, the "big five" railroad [brot]herhood heads and other "re[acti]onary" leaders, as Foster terms [the]m.

[Its] aims to accomplish among [othe]r things

—Consolidation of all the 16 [stan]dard railroad unions into one union —Formation of a labor party [in t]he United States.

[F]oster's campaign is launched on [the] eve of his going on trial with other alleged "reds" on the [char]ge of violating the Michigan [synd]icalist law

[It] is projected at a time when [indu]strial peace never seemed [brig]hter according to leaders and [emp]loyers

[F]oster, in an interview today re[veal]ed that he is instituting this [wi]th a national referendum on [the] whole trade union movement [on] the subject of a labor party. [B]y 35,000 local unions will be [po]larized, he said

[A]lso, he is now taking a nation[al r]eferendum among the 12,000 [loca]l unions of the sixteen stand[ard] railroad organizations on the [pr]oposition of amalgamation.

"Must Remodel Unions"

[O]ur unions must be remodell[ed,"] Foster said. "Their reaction[ary] leaders must be swept away, [the] workers given new hope and a [gene]ral renovation of the labor [mov]ement brought about."

[F]oster, who was a leader in the [great] big steel strike, declares the [stri]king railroad shopmen were ["dou]ble crossed" by other railroad [unio]n leaders and forced to go it [alon]e. He is pointing this out [thro]ugh the Trade Union educa[tion]al league, of which he is the [hea]d, as a striking example of [ban]krupt labor leadership."

[W]e are creating sentiment that sooner or later result in a gen[eral] consolidation of unions," he [sta]rted.

[F]oster declined to discuss the im[pend]ing trial of the communists, [a]nd asserting that he was not [caug]ht in the Michigan raid but [was] arrested subsequently in Chi[cago].

2 AMHERST MEN FACE BOOZE CHARGES

Deputies from Sheriff Underhill's office made two raids late yesterday afternoon resulting in two arrests for violation of the liquor laws.

At the home of John Kaliscweski, Stop 31, between Amherst and Penfield Junction they found a gallon of raisin jack, and fifty gallons of mash Kaliscweski was at work at the National Tube Co, and officers of the Tube Co. arrested him and turned him over to the deputies

Next door to the Kaliscweski home lives John Savina His home was visited where the officers found a five gallon still in operation, and also found one hundred gallons of rhubarb wine. He was also arrested and both men were brought to the county jail and locked up.

This morning the men were arraigned before Justice S. J George Kaliscweski was charged with the illegal possession of liquor, and Savina with manufacturing and possession. Both men plead not guilty. Kaliscweski was found guilty and fined $500 and costs. Savina asked for a continuance and was released on bond, to be tried later

The officers participating in the raid were Deputies Zarhews, Bivins, Adams, Billings, Saulsbury and Gibson

VET DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMAN IS DEAD

W. Bourke Cochran, 69, Succumbs After Stroke; Graduated From Tammany School

WASHINGTON, March 1 —W. Bourke Cochran, veteran democratic congressman from New York and one of the most famous orators of his time died at his home here this morning following an illness of only a few hours

He became ill last night suffered a stroke of apoplexy in the early morning hours, and his death soon followed He was 69 years old

News of the death of Representative Cochran came as a profound shock to the capital where few men in public life enjoyed a wider acquaintance or a greater host of friends than did the picturesque New Yorker Not alone in New York and Washington, where he spent the greater part of his life, but in many states he was noted for the brilliance of his oratory and the independence and vigor of his views on public questions In the lobbies of congress news of his death was received with sorrow, and political friend and foe hastened to pay tribute to his eminence

Mrs. Cochran was prostrated by grief at her husband's death and was under care of a physician today She was Miss Anna Ide when she married Representative Cochran in 1906

Owing to the legislative jam in the house and the few remaining days of this session the house will adjourn late this afternoon only for a short time out of respect to Representative Cochran's memory. Ordinarily, it was explained by leaders, a day's adjournment would be taken

Taught School

Bourke Cochran has been a conspicuous figure in the public and political life of America for half a century A native of Ireland, born in county Sligo, he came to the United States in 1871 fresh from the best schools of his native land and of France. He was then 17, too young to be admitted to the bar. For five years he taught school, and upon reaching his majority was admitted to the bar and began practicing law in New York. Six years later, at the age of 27, he was a delegate to the democratic state convention, and from that point on he was a conspicuous and brilliant figure at every political convention of note in state and national politics.

Cochran was a democrat, identified for years with Tammany Hall in the heyday of its power, but the vigor and independence of his views on public questions often ran him crosswise to the purposes of his party This was especially noted in 1884 when he leaped into national prominence by making a brilliant speech against the nomination of Grover Cleveland Again in 1896, when Bryan was nominated for the presidency, his independence of views ran counter to his party, and he forsook the standard of democracy and campaigned for McKinley on a gold standard. Four years later on the issue of "anti imperialism" he returned to his party, and campaigned for Bryan.

Served 7 Terms

Representative Cochran was in and out of congress during his long and memorable career, serving all told seven terms. He was first elected to the fiftieth congress in 1887, at the age of 33, and later served in the fifty-second, fifty-third, fifty-eighth, fifty-ninth sixtieth and sixty-seventh. He was re-elected to the sixty-eighth last November. In the years he was not in congress he practiced law in New York and was identified with many famous cases.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION IS CALLED BY NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION IN CONFERENCE

AMBASSADOR TO JAPAN RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, March 1 — Charles Beecher Warren called at the White House early this afternoon and handed President Harding his formal resignation as United States ambassador to Japan.

GERMANY WILLING TO PAY AMERICA WITH HER GOODS

PARIS, March 1.—The United States may accept dyes and chemicals from Germany for the $255,000,000 owing for the upkeep of the American army of occupation on the Rhine, it was reported here today when the international conference opened regarding costs of armies of occupation.

See Acceptance

America is represented in the conference by Eliot Wadsworth, assistant secretary of the treasury. Other representatives are M. Tannery of France; M. Bemelmans, of Belgium; Signor Damelio, of Italy and Sir John Bradbury, of England.

"The problem of adjusting the costs of the armies of occupation of the allied and associated powers is made more difficult by the fact that Germany has ceased all payments," said the Matin. 'It seems, however, that Washington must realise this.

"The American treasury department probably would be content if awarded certain payments in kind, notably dyes or chemicals. America refused to ratify the treaty of Versailles and protests all efforts to compel Germany to pay, but also claims the benefits of all payments that we compel the Germans to make."

No Longer "Angel"

"It is believed in French circles that Mr. Wadsworth has been instructed by the American government to demand payment in chemicals and dyes," said the Echo De Paris. "If this is true the allies will be able to reach an amicable agreement."

Europe is becoming convinced that the United States will compel the payment of debts contracted in behalf of the allied nations in war time. Uncle Sam has ceased to be the "angel."

U. S. Not Worried

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Administration officials are not uneasy over the status of the government's $254,000,000 bill for maintenance of the American army of occupation in Germany ... confident that payment will be made, it was stated officially at the treasury department today.

Secretary of the treasury Mellon was said to feel that the rights of the United States to share in the German reparations payments to the extent of the Rhine debt were fully guaranteed under the Versailles treaty, although it was not accepted by the senate.

Finland To Pay

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Finnish government has opened negotiations with the American debt funding commission for the payment of its $9,294,362 war debt to the United States, it was announced officially at the treasury department today.

Leonard Astrom, the Finn minister, will confer on the debt tomorrow with Secretary of the treasury Mellon.

To Speed War Debts

WASHINGTON, March 1.—To speed up the payment of the war debts owed the United States by European powers other than Great Britain, Secretary of state Hughes will shortly formally advised the debtors of the additional powers granted the American debt commission in its funding operations, it was announced at the treasury department today.

In approving ahe British settlement, congress authorized the commission to include other funding agreements on term similar accorded Great Britain.

TAFT TAX BILL PASSAGE IS DELAYED

Rural Bloc Wants More Time to Study Amendments—Abolish Office of Township Treasurer

COLUMBUS, March 1 —Republican house members representing rural districts supporting uniform tax rule, aided by the 27 democratic house members, have sent back to the house taxation committee the Taft tax bill.

Although members of the "rural bloc" stated they desired more time to study amendments to the measure, it is claimed the rural legislators will try to prevent a final vote on the bill until an agreement is reached for bringing the Fouts income tax bill and other taxation measures favored by the rural bloc to a final vote on the floor of the house Democratic floor leader Atkinson charged that the only purpose of the Taft bill is to raise the tax rate two mills in Cincinnati.

Governor Donahey's reappointment of John R. Cassidy as a democratic member of the state tax commission has been confirmed by the senate. The house agriculture committee recommended passage of the bill requiring that every woolen garment be stamped showing the actual content of "virgin wool."

The senate has concurred in the action of the house which passed bills abolishing the office of township treasurer, preventing canneries buying milk from paying high prices where competition is strong and low prices where no competition exists, and providing that school busses must stop before crossing railroad tracks.

A joint resolution providing for appointment of a committee, consisting of the senate and house schools committee chairmen and two other senators and as many more representatives, to supervise recodification of the school laws has been adopted in the senate.

HOLD 14-YEAR BOY IN SCHOOL THEFTS

RIDGEVILLE, March 1.—The rapid disappearance of a pile of coal at the Sugar Ridge school house, caused an investigation to be made with the result that the janitor claims to have caught a fourteen-year-old boy helping himself from the pile. The matter was placed before members of the board of education last night, and they decided to place it in the hands of Justice of the Peace A. D. Nye. No warrant has been issued, but the boy's parents may be asked to settle.

BACK IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Christopher Mathewson, president of the Boston Braves, is the possessor of the most picturesque career in the annals of baseball. A career so colorful that it makes a painting. A transcendent canvas full of the warm, glowing colors of triumph. This painting already hangs in the Hall of Achievement.

Christy first saw the light of day in Factoryville, a little town in northeastern Pennsylvania, and in the gauky stage of boyhood did his first pitching around the debris-scattered lots of that little town.

Young Mathewson went away to college and became interested in football. He played fullback on the Keystone college team and his interests wavered between the gridiron and the diamond, but not for long. He saw his first professional baseball game in Boston in 1899, and the following year gained fame in the south, pitching twenty-one games for Norfolk and losing only two. That very same season New York obtained him, but he returned to Norfolk to finish the season.

The following year he was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds, but New York got him again through a trade.

Then came the blaring trumpets of fame. The name Christy Mathewson became a household word and the idol of every American boy when he won the world's series of 1905 with three victories on the mound. The chickens, the birds, the cats and the dogs all gurgled inarticulate "hurrahs" for Christy over the bakyard fence.

He pitched sixteen years for the Giants and hurled in four world's series, winning a total of five games and losing five.

Mathewson's arm began to feel the strain of tossing the sphere for so many years and in 1916 he became the manager of the Cincinnati Reds. The war came on and Christy enlisted. He went across and when he came back he signed up with McGraw as coach of the Giant pitchers, but his health soon gave way and Matty was forced to take the mountain air of Saranac Lake, where he staged a hardfought battle for his life and won. While on the road to recovery in Saranac, Christy refused to talk baseball. He found no end of interest in checkers and called himself "Joe the Turk," a name culled from the old checker automaton created by P. T. Barnum.

Last fall Matty came down out of the mountains to New York and attended the world's series. The fans cheered the rafters loose at the old Polo grounds when the former hero of the national pastime put in an appearance.

And now we have President Christopher Mathewson of the Boston Nationals. Yesterday the great pitcher, today a big league mogul.

With Mathewson and Frank Chance in Boston, things should begin to brighten up for the fans around the land of the sacred codfish.

WILL SMITH FIND HIMSELF AT LAST?

George Smith.

In 1916 the Brooklyn Dodgers borrowed Pitcher George Smith from the Giants for a short time. Since then Smith moved to the Phillies. Now Manager Robinson has obtained him by trade from the Quaker City. Despite the fact that Smith never has risen to the dizzy heights, Manager Robinson believes George will help the Dodgers.

SUICIDES AFTER QUARREL

COLUMBUS, March 1.—The lifeless body of Mrs. Clara E. Woerner, 39, was found in the Scioto river, near the storage dam, by police today. In her pocket book, found on the river bank was a letter in which Mrs. Woerner said she had trouble with her husband, Charles J. Woerner, a local street car motorman and was "tired of living."

CLEVELAND, March 1.—School superintendents and other leading educators of the United States were expected to go on record late today as almost unanimously opposed to the plan said to have the support of President Harding for the establishment of a joint education and welfare department in Washington, with a cabinet officer at its head, and to record their belief that a national department of education should be established.

COLUMBUS, March 1.—That the illicit user of alcohol and whiskey is being driven out of Ohio is the claim made here today by J. E. Russell, federal prohibition director of Ohio.

G. H. Box was a business caller in Cleveland on Monday.

Wesley Martin has a New Ford roadster.

Mrs. Fred Strait spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Harley Reisinger.

CINCINNATI, March 1.—In a decision holding that sums which corporations and individuals expect to pay to the government in income and excess profits may not be deducted as "debts due" in returns made to the county auditor for taxation purposes, prosecutor Charles S. Bell, through Aassistant Prosecutor Chester S. Durr, last night opened a legal controversy that may have wide scope.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Harding was authorized and requested by congress today to enter into negotiations with foreign governments for the limitation of production of habit forming drugs to the amount necessary for medical and scientific purposes.

It is a good job for some of those who ask for justice that they don't get it.

If Ruptured Try This Free

Apply it to Any Rupture, Old or Recent, Large or Small and You are on the Road That Has Convinced Thousands.

Sent Free to Prove This

Anyone ruptured, man, woman or child, should write at once to W. S. Rice, 755 B Main St., Adams, N. Y., for a free trial of his wonderful stimulating application. Just put it on the rupture and the muscles begin to tighten; they begin to bind together so that the opening closes naturally and the need of a support or truss or appliance is then done away with. Don't neglect to send for this free trial. Even if your rupture doesn't bother you what is the use of wearing supports all your life? Why suffer this nuisance? Why run the risk of gangrene and such dangers from a small and innocent little rupture, the kind that has thrown thousands on the operating table. A host of men and women are daily running such risk just because their ruptures do not hurt nor prevent them from getting around. Write at once for this free trial, as it is certainly a wonderful thing and has aided in the cure of ruptures that were as big as a man's two fists. Try and write at once, using the coupon below.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenrhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. Harry A. Crandall can supply you.

RAIL DETECTIVE SHOOTS LORAIN DRUNK

LORAIN, March 1.—Joe Kral, 35, is in St. Joseph's hospital with a bullet wound in his right ankle, that was fired by L. V. Jones, B. & O. detective. At the corner of 32nd and Vine street, Joss and Nelson Brucker, B. & O. paymaster, who was carrying a $3,000 pay roll for the men in the shops, met Kral, who was drunk and disorderly. Jones tried to arrest him and he started to fight. The officer hit him with a black jack with no effect and Kral drew a knife, the officer slipped and fell down in the mud and Kral jumped on him. Then the officer drew his gun and fired. No charge has been placed against Jones by the police who believe his act was justified.

Germans Charge French Plunder

BERLIN, March 1—"A serious situation exists in the Ruhr," the German goverment today formerly notified the world powers.

Germany attributed the growing tension and seriousness of the Ruhr situation to "French plundering and threats".

German officials said they feared that widespread violence would break out and they wanted to warn the powers in advance.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Harding fully expects that the senate will confirm the nomination of James G. McNary as comptroller of the currency, it was stated officially at the treasury department today. If McNary's nomination is not confirmed, he will be named to the post during the congressional recess.

State Briefs

COLUMBUS, March 1.—The community newspaper, its needs and necessities will be the subject for discussion at the annual conference of the Buckeye press association which opens here today at Hotel Chittenden.

CINCINNATI, March 1.—Horses are to be replaced in the Cincinnati police department to enable patrolmen to cover beats with greater efficiency.

RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN, SORENESS STIFFNESS

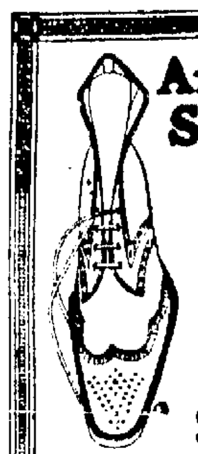

What is rheumatism? Pain only. St. Jacobs Oil will stop any pain so quit drugging.

Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil directly upon the tender spot and relief comes instantly. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism and sciatica liniment, which never disappoints and can not burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle from your druggist, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic and sciatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer. Relief awaits you. Old, honest St. Jacobs Oil has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains and swellings.—Advt.

LIGHT-SIX TOURING CAR (1923 SERIES) $975

The 1923 series Light-Six Touring Car has been a dominant feature of all the automobile shows.

It is handsome in appearance, with a harmony of line previously confined to high priced cars. It is complete in detail with many refinements exclusive with Studebaker. It is exceptional in economy of purchase and maintenance.

The new body is all steel, even to the framework, and is finished in baked enamel. Cushions are ten inches deep and upholstered, as usual, in genuine leather. There is generous room for five persons in ease and comfort.

The chassis remains practically unchanged. It is essentially the same splendid automobile that has delivered satisfaction to a hundred thousand owners throughout the world.

The Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car fully meets the public demand for a light weight, moderate priced, high quality motor car.

The new one-piece, rain-proof windshield gives unobstructed view to the driver. The quick-action cowl ventilator and the tight-fitting curtains are among many unusual items of equipment. The parking lights add a finished touch and are most convenient.

The Light-Six Touring Car upholds Studebaker's 71-year reputation for honest value.

PITTSFIELD

By Mrs. Reed Ives

PITTSFIELD, March 1—Friends and relatives from Elyria, Wellington, Kipton, Oberlin and LaGrange were in attendance at the funeral of Mr. James Hollingsworth on Saturday p. m. who passed away Feb. 20 at Mercedes, Texas, where he went one and a half years ago in search of better health. He seemed to have found it for a time but the past six months have been months of suffering for him. He was born and lived here in Pittsfield all his life until he left for Texas. "Jim" was one of our boys and will be greatly missed.

A number of friends and relatives from here attended the funeral of Mr. Chas. Avery at his home in Oberlin on Wednesday. Mr. Avery was born here and lived here many years and will be greatly missed by his many friends here.

The funeral of Frank Sheffield, which was held at his home on Tuesday p. m. was largely attended by his friends and relatives. They were present from Wellington, Kipton and Oberlin. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, which expresses the high esteem in which he was held. He also will be greatly missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams left on Wednesday for their home near Battle Creek, Mich., after having spent several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. ... Hanmer.

Mrs. Madge Jordan of Elyria spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Norton.

Spring is here, or near. Mr. John Ward tapped his sugar bush on Monday and was boiling sap on Tuesday p. m.

Mrs. C. H. Whitney has a hatch of 12 chicks and we saw robins several weeks ago.

Mrs. Geo. Hollingsworth spent Sunday in Lorain as guest of Mr and Mrs. John Wagoner.

Miss Nellie Andrews spent the week end at her home in Bellville, Ohio.

Mr. Earl Betts is the owner of a new Ford auto.

Scott Widdowson enjoyed (?) a ride home from Detroit, Mich., on Saturday on a Ford truck chassis.

An average of 120 new automobiles per week pass through the township enroute south.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Betts of Penfield were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Betts.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Ives, Scott. John and Mary Widdowson were entertained on Sunday at the Frank Betts home.

Ed McConnell left on Sunday evening for Philadelphia, Pa., to attend an Ayrshire Cattle sale.

Many of our townspeople are ill with lagrippe. Among them, Luella Hines, Hope Schuster, Charlie and Martin Gibbons, Mr. R. L. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sherburne have had a radiophone installed in their home. We hope it proves satisfactory and that they may enjoy it and yet we hope they won't stay at home all of the time on account of it.

Last Thursday evening a pleasant social time was held in the school house of Dist. No. 3 by the Parent Teachers Association here. A good program was given by the scholars, followed by an old fashioned spell down, which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. F. C. Brandt Frank Betts a close second. Wienbeing the best speller and Mrs. er sandwiches and coffee were served.

This item to correct a mistake of last week. Harold Brandt has purchased the stock and farm tools of Mr. Burton Cashner and has rented the E. Parsons farm which is being vacated by Mr. Cashner in Pittsfield Twp.

Miss Marjorie Henson and Miss Marian Whitney spent Sunday with Miss Marian Sherman in Cleveland.

Miss Thelma Reynolds of Oberlin spent Sunday with Miss Mary Elizabeth Schubert.

Miss Sarah Garrett of Oberlin spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Garrett. Mr. Albert Smith of Elyria also spent Sunday at the same home.

It is backbone that makes success, and not wish-bone.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1923.

THE RECIPIENT OF LEGAL CHARITY

The Cleveland Press calls attention to an incident in Oklahoma which illustrates how society can benefit certain men without receiving any benefit in return from them. In the particular case cited, the man was in prison, and it appears wrongfully. He was innocent of the crime with which he was charged. He is discharged now from the penitentiary, after twenty-two years of incarceration, and is practically a millionaire.

When he entered the jail twenty-two years ago he was relatively poor, but owned some land which has appreciated enormously during this lapse of about a quarter of a century. He made no effort himself to advance the value of this property. He did not add to its productivity. He not only produced nothing from it, but it was by merest coincidence that he was not the actual criminal which he was supposed to be and frankly a parasite upon society. The growth of population, due entirely to the efforts of others, has enhanced the value of the property and he is the beneficiary.

How many of us have profited in the same manner? We buy a piece of property on the edge of a growing city. As the Press suggests, if we went to sleep, the value of the piece would increase the same as if we were awake. We have practically created a monopoly, and taken possession of it. The city grows up around it, due to the vision and the enterprise of others. We sit by and reap the benefit. We all do it. Those who don't wish they had. And yet every dollar with which that property has been enhanced must have been earned in some manner.

Back of every dollar of increase is a real value, and real value is due to labor. And mark you this is not a natural value, as comes from finding a diamond or a nugget of gold, because the increased value of our land was not there until actual effort, and labor, was put forth. Private property and its protection are possible only by the plans and rules and laws which a developing society has laid down. If our society had agreed upon another plan, a community if interests in all property might have been the program carried out. There are some things like this unearned value, which really should belong to society as a whole, or at any rate a fair portion of it.

Some day the people will realize this, and they will not put a premium upon the holding of land from the market, and from productivity, by permitting the man who has not earned, to receive the benefit. Until that time comes we will all attribute to our keenness and our foresight, our ability to "make" by buying up farms which we know by the natural growth of the cities will soon be valued in small parcels in city lots.

CHILD LABOR STATISTICS

The extent to which child labor is employed in this country is shown in a pamphlet just issued by the federal children's bureau.

The 1920 census, the bureau reports, showed more than 1,000,000 children 10 to 15 years of age were gainfully employed, of whom 378,063 were less than 14 years old. The figures indicate considerable decrease from 1910, but it is asserted that a large part of the decrease is apparent rather than real, since it was due primary to a change in the census date from April, as in 1910, to January. In a number of occupations fewer children are employed in winter than in spring.

Even though the figures showed an actual decrease they are still unpleasantly large. In this land of proverbial plenty we ought to be doing better by the coming men and women. In one state boys 12 years of age are permitted to do factory work, and in two others there is no age minimum.—Rockford Register-Gazette.

KOMICAL TELEGRAMS

By JIM ARMITAGE, Himself

Well, here's old man March, and he can be as gentle as ten lambs and get along with most of us I'm not strong for that "Lion" stuff with coal at ten berries a ton.

Now if this was leap year it would be my birthday. Yep the 29th of February. If a fellow stepped out on his birthday you wouldn't blame him so very much when it only happens once every four years.

See where the Mayor vetoed the ordinance creating a "Water superintendent." If they keep putting chlorine in it I don't blame him, no one is drinking it anyway.

Politically this ought to help the Mayor with the so called "wet" element.

Harding finally signed the bill allowing England 62 years to pay her war debt to the United States. They can't say that Warren is a hard man to get along with.

If they don't pay then, I suppose he'll sue 'em for it.

They're about ready to spring his announcement to stand for a second term. Don't look as though he'll lose the British vote.

Now that he feels sure of the golfers vote, wonder why he don't start pitching horseshoes and get the city firemen lined up.

Guess he's the first newspaper man who ever was sent to Washington—but that can't be said of Atlanta or Columbus.

Jimmie Simpson is going to use his influence to elect Mister Ford. It will be hard for Harding to overcome.

Just to change the subject, I got a letter from Sol Sax. He enclosed a clipping about a fellow in New York owning a harem for $100,000. Sol says "This fellow needs protection, I'm going to write to him."

Sol has a very good plan for getting FREE publicity for his insurance business. But if he don't send in better copy that fellow don't need protection—he needs a guardian.

Now they are agitating a law to make Bible reading compulsory in the schools. It's a good idea, for very few ever see one after they leave school.

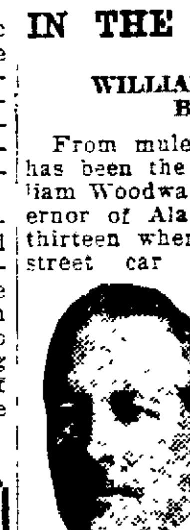

Did you read about the man who was arrested in Salt Lake City for smoking a cigar? If they ever caught him smoking a pipe he never would get out.

Saw a couple driving down Broad street yesterday and the machine had the cutest little pair of lace curtains. Guess who's the boss in that household.

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAY'S NEWS

WILLIAM WOODWARD BRANDON

From mule driver to governor has been the grade made by William Woodward Brandon, new governor of Alabama. Brandon was thirteen when he drove a mule-street car at Tuscaloosa and dreamed a dream and he was less than fifty-five when that dream came true.

GOV BRANDON

The son of a methodist minister, there was nothing but hard work in the Governor's early life. At thirteen he was living in Tuscaloosa and whether or not it was the proximity of the University of Alabama he began to yearn for an education. His first step in that direction was to get a position as driver of Kate, the street car mule. Ten years later he entered the University of Alabama as a law student, paying his way with the money he had earned as a street car driver. Two years later he was admitted to the bar in Alabama.

Then came his first political office, justice of the peace. Next he was city clerk of Tuscaloosa and later Tuscaloosa's representative in the Legislature in 1896. He was re-elected for this office twice serving until 1898

When the Spanish-American war broke out Brandon headed his own company and was promoted to major. Returning to Alabama he was named adjutant general of the state forces. He held that position until 1906. The following year he became state auditor, the first elective office given him which he held until 1911. In 1918 he felt the time had come to realize his dream and he entered the race for governor. But the fates decided otherwise and he suffered his first defeat.

It was no usual defeat, however, for it was just the beginning of his success. Immediately after his unsuccessful candidacy he announced that he was a candidate for governor four years hence. His campaign was one of the most remarkable in the State's history. Until six months before the primary it looked as if Brandon would do something no other man had ever done—obtain the office of governor without a contest.

As it turned out he carried every county but one and brought back to the fold every county which had strayed except one. He received the greatest majority ever given a candidate or governor — almost 120,000

I fill this cup to one made up
 Of loveliness alone,
A woman, of her gentle sex
 The seeming paragon;
To whom the better elements
 And kindly stars have given
A form so fair, that, like the air,
 'Tis less of earth than heaven.

Her every tone is music's own,
 Like those of morning birds,
And something more than melody
 Dwells ever in her words,
The coinage of her heart are they,
 And from her heart each flows
As one may see the burdened bee
 Forth issue from the rose.

Affections are as thoughts to her,
 The measures of her hours,
Her feelings have the fragrancy,
 The freshness of young flowers;
And lovely passions, changing oft,
 So fill her she appears
The image of themselves by turns,
The idol of past years!

Of her bright face one glance will trace
 A picture on the brain,
And of her voice in echoing hearts
 A sound must long remain,
But memory, such as mine of her,
 So very much endears
When death is nigh, my latest sigh
 Will not be life's, but hers

I fill this cup to one made up
 Of loveliness alone,
A woman, of her gentle sex
 The seeming paragon—
Her health, and would on earth there stood
 Some more of such a frame
That life might be all poetry,
 And weariness a name.

TIMELY VIEWS ON WORLD TOPICS

"KLAN HOPES TO SUBMERGE CONSTITUTED GOVERNMENT," CHARLES GOV. PARKER.

A plea to Americans to organize in unmasking the Ku Klux Klan, and a warning that the clan hopes to submerge constituted government under a "hostile mob of knuckles acting as prosecutor, judge, jury, executioner, and permitting no defense," was voiced recently by Gov. John M Parker in opening the six nights "all nations anti-klan rally" in Chicago

J M PARKER

"Every state in the union should declare itself against masked men and mob violence in such unmistakable terms and with such severe penalties that none would dare wear the hood and robes that conceal murder and outrage under a traitorous pretense of law enforcement" the exposer of Mer Rouge kluxism said "The klan is endeavoring to tear asunder community ties and lifelong friendships by injecting into our lives issues against which Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt repeatedly warned us The time has come for the most drastic action conceivable

"The Ku Klux Klan has as much right as any society to organize," Gov. Parker continued "but no organization has the right to work under cover of darkness, hoods and masks, to commit crimes and outrages that take us back to the middle ages of barbarism We cannot at this late day mix religion and politics thus tearing families and communities asunder and creating bitterness and discord where peace should prevail

"The klan is a menace to the political liberties of the people It strikes at freedom and religious conscience. It pretends to punish lesser offenses, but instead commits greater crimes. It is the deadly enemy of law and order"

U. S. SENDS $850,000,000 TO EUROPE FOR RELIEF WORK

The magnitude of the relief work Americans have done in Eurpope since the war was emphasized recently by figures made public by the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, which has taken a leading part in the work in cooperation with Herbert Hoover and the American Relief Administration James W Rosenberg, Vice Chairman of the committee, said that the total of American contributions since the armistice, including Government and private gifts, had reached $850,000,000.

More than five-eighths of this amount has been expended under the supervision of the American Relief Administration. The money has been spent in twenty-three countries of Europe The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee has collected nearly $50,000,000 from American Jews for relief work in European war countries and has spent more than $50,000,000. In Russia the committee has spent about $13,000,000 a large part of which has gone for non-sectarian relief. The total American contribution to Russian relief has been $50,000,000 through organizations and another $10,000,000 in food packages sent to individuals in Russia.

HUMANS, PIG AND HORSE FOUND STARVING IN SHACK

Nora Donovan and the six children found with her in the shack.

New York institutions are caring for Nora Donovan, twenty-seven, and six children that were found with her, two men, a pig and a horse, in a one-room shack in the Catskill mountains by New York state police. All the occupants were starving. Mrs. Donovan told troopers the four younger children were hers, but she did not know who their father was. Emsey Wells, one of the men, said he was a widower and the father of the older ones. He is sixty-one. The other man was Wilbur Wright. He is forty-six. The occupants were taken to New York city by the troopers.

TREAS. MELLON'S DIVORCED WIFE WILL RE-MARRY

NEW YORK, March 1.—Mrs. Nore Mullen Mellon, divorced wife of Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, whose engagement to Harvey Arthur Lee, a former art dealer, was disclosed when the couple went to the municipal buildings here and obtained a marriage licence today refused to discuss her wedding plans.

Mrs. Mellon, according to the license, is 14 years the senior of her prospective husband, who is thirty.

When she was divorced by Mellon in Pittsburgh in 1912, it was said that he had settled $3,000,000 upon her. She has received alimony of $30,000 a year.

Attempts on the part of Mellon to have a first suit, which charged infidelity, heard in private, aroused great public interest. Mrs. Mellon succeeded in compelling the hearings to be public, upon which Mellon withdrew the infidelity charges and brought another suit alleging desertion. Mrs. Mellon did not contests this.

Don't Let Weak Nerves Steal Your Good Looks

Put in Nu-Phosphate the one organic phosphate that thousands of good druggists endorse as best, will turn weak nerves into strong, steady ones and restore vigor, energy and ambition to worn out, discouraged men and women.

Strengthen your nerves and sharpen up that once keen mind, for without nerve force the beauty of youth will soon disappear.—Adv.

Armitage and Rice Kiwanis Delegates

At the Kiwanis noonday lunch today there were several out of town guests present. The guest prize, of a silver cigaret case, was presented by E. M. Rice and went to J. C. McClendon, of Lorain.

Judge H. C. Wilcox was presented as the newest Kiwanian. Dr. J. Ed. Betteridge gave a report of the committee on "The under privileged child," that was very interesting.

ENTIRE HOUSEHOLD IS RESTORED BY TANLAC

Canton Lady Declares Famous Medicine Overcame General Breakdown and She Gained 25 Pounds — Also Proved Blessing to Husband and Children

"The way Tanlac has helped our family is almost unbelievable. My husband says it made him feel like a new man, and I'm in the best health of my life," declared Mrs. G. W. Durham, 1415 Third St., N. E., Canton, Ohio, recently.

"We also give it to our children when they are feeling unwell and it never fails to bring them right out.

"I had suffered a general breakdown and was almost a nervous wreck. Of nights, I could get only a little fitful sleep and I had stomach trouble so bad I was losing weight and feeling weak and miserable almost to desperation.

"My husband had gone through about the same troubles and Tanlac restored his health, so he urged me to try it. Well, it is astonishing how the treatment has relieved these ailments. I'm eating ravenously and sleeping just fine now, and I've actually gained twenty-six pounds. Tanlac is truly a medicine for all the family."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.—Advt.

MILITARY BEAU BRUMMELS TO FAVOR SWAGGER STICKS

WASHINGTON, March 1—The military dandy is coming back.

Drab uniforms of war days are to be superseded by the more pretentious garb, favored by the American Tommy Atkins of pre-war days.

The new summer toggery of the U. S Marines will be blue coats with brass buttons, white trousers, white belts and white cap covers Toreador trousers are barred, but the carrying of swagger sticks will be considered good form by fastidious dressers

Military tailors announce that the sartorial investiture of the Leathernecks will be the last word in military smartness.

MARION, March 1 — Isaac Rice, 55, a native of Egypt and formerly of Cambridge, O., dropped dead at a steel plant here today. His heart is said to have become paralyzed as a result of the intense heat.

COLUMBUS, March 1 — The house by a vote of 49 to 28 amended the Taft tax bill so as to provide for a 14 5 mill limitation for rural districts instead of a 14 mill restriction.

MAN OF 60 REGAINS VIGOR HE HAD AT 35

New Orleans Resident Tells of Wonderful Result Produced by a Recent Scientific Discovery.

D. W. Wodd, 60, of New Orleans, La., declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered korex compound, which is pronounced superior to "gland treatments" as an invigorator and revitalizer "It has brought me back to as good, healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 35," he writes "I am apparently as supple as at 25" Mr Wood says he would not take $5,000 for what the compound has done for him.

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, yet the most powerful invigorator known Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and certain blood vessels, it often produces amazing benefits in 24 to 36 hours In nationwide tests it has won the praises of thousands who suffered from nerve weakness, premature age and lack of vital force Physicians say it gives speedy satisfaction in cases that defy other treatments. Elderly people pronounce it a real "fountain of youth"

Knowing that this news may seem "too good to be true," the distributors invite any person needing the compound to take a $2 double-strength treatmen enough for ordinary cases, with the understanding that it costs nothing if it fails If you wish to try this guaranteed invigorator, write in strict confidence to the Melton Laboratories, 2192 Massachusetts Bldg, Kansas City, Mo If you prefer, you may enclose $2; or simply send your name, without money, and pay the postman $2 and postage on delivery in either case. If you report after one week that the korex compound has not given you satisfaction, the laboratories will return your money immediately. This offer is fully guaranteed, so nobody need hesitate about accepting it —Adv.

MRS. CARTWRIGHT GIVES SEVERAL TALKS WHILE GUEST AT LOCAL Y. W. C. A.

The local Y. W. C. A. has been most fortunate in having for their guest, the past two days, Mrs. Cartwright of the State Board of Health.

The state worker spoke on "Social Hygiene" and the need of it being taught in the public schools. She stated that special emphasis is being placed on the development of all plant life and careful breeding of animal life, but the same emphasis is not placed on the careful raising of boys and girls. She gave the statistics of the number of children physically unfit to attend school and yet in a great measure no one is disturbed.

Mrs. Cartwright said in part: "There must be an awakening to find the cause of this deplorable condition. Young women and young men must take an inventory of themselves and their heredity before they marry."

On Monday afternoon a very representative group of Y. W. C. A. board members, W. C. T. U. and Child Conservation League members gathered at the "Y" to hear Mrs. Cartwright. Mrs. Hecock, of the Industrial Committee was chairman and after Mrs. Cartwright's talk, tea and cakes were served.

On Tuesday evening, the Federation Girls and their mothers enjoyed a snow party. Supper was served at six o'clock and Miss Barbara Johnson lead the devotions. She gave the first talk of a series which she will deliver every Tuesday evening during Lent. A half hour's recreation was in charge of Miss Sigrid Hallman.

Mrs. Wilford's Bible Class met from 7:00 to 7:30 while Miss Ethel West explained to the mothers the procedure of activities every Tuesday evening. She then introduced Mrs. Cartwright, who spoke on "Some Interestings of Life or the Breed of Families."

At 8:45, Mrs. Cartwright addressed a club of young women at the Social Settlement House.

HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF METHODIST CHURCH MOTHER-DAUGHTER SUPPER

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will have a Mother and Daughters' Tureen Supper at the church tomorrow evening, March 2nd. The Elizabeth Stevens Society, Wesleyan Circle, Home Guards and Mother's Jewels are invited guests.

After a short address by a Field Secretary, all will go in a body to the auditorium for the revival service.

METHODIST CHURCH

The subject of the sermon last night was "The Psychology of Conversion." The text used is, "Marvel not that I said unto you, 'Ye must be born again.'"

"There are different opinions about conversion; some think it entirely supernatural, some think it entirely human, but I believe it is a combination of both," said Dr. Kirby.

In substance he further said, "There must be a willingness on your part, that is the human element. Among other things it has been established that every man has a religious nature, and that conversion is never entirely from without. But when someone has been saved we know a Divine agency has been at work. There is no such thing as conversion by an institution, or by education. It is not a matter of thinking. There is no other way than through Jesus Christ. There are three very necessary elements to a conversion. They are mighty intense prayer, necessary elements to a conversion feeding upon the Word of God, and the visitation of the Holy Spirit."

Services again tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon topic tonight is, "Varieties of Conversion."

HATS FOR SPORTS AND DRESS WEAR ALL SHADE THE EYES

The off-the-face type of hat which has been popular for many seasons, indeed even proving the most popular shape in memory which milliners have brought out, is to give way this spring to the drooping brimmed style. Poke shapes, cloche shapes and other short backed and drooping brimmed models are shown to the exclusion of all up turned brims. These dropping brimmed hats should be easier to wear for the shadows soften the lines of the face but so long has the upturned brim reigned that few women want to change. Complaints are being heard on every side by women who can not or will not wear the poke hat but, of course, fashion will win as always. These three hats shown here are typical of the downward tendency of all brims Two sports hats are shown and one very lovely dress hat the latter at the left a large hat made of gray horsehair.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger —Advt.

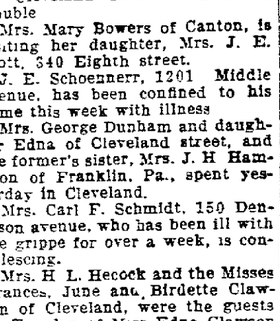

"Every day in every way, things grow better and better." A current phrase which conveys our state to the letter. In every chic hat we present our object is most evident—To make a line that every day keeps growing better and better.

Phillip's Drug Store

4 Men in 7 Bald at 40 —yet 91% needlessly!

Science discovers falling hair most always due to simple infection (Sebum). Now quickly overcomes it.

Written Guarantee to Grow Hair This New Way—or Money Refunded

This is to offer you, under absolute money-back guarantee, the new Van Ess treatment, which, under actual tests, grew hair on 91 heads in 100.

It embodies new principles. Principles heretofore unknown to science. Now high authorities say baldness soon may be a rarity. For hair roots seldom die. And this method revives them. Test it yourself at our risk.

Hair Roots Rarely Die

Records show 4 men in 7 are bald, or partially bald, at 40 Modern science proves this to be unnecessary. Proves only about 9 men in 100 need ever be bald!

Baldness is not a disease. Note this fact and mark it. It is merely a symptom of infection—of an infectious scalp oil, known as Sebum.

Remove this infected Sebum and hair will almost always grow. Under the bald scalp, the hair roots are generally alive. This is true in about 90% of all cases of falling hair or baldness.

This new method reaches the roots. It makes hair grow. But the public has often been deceived. So we guarantee it. You take no chance of loss.

New Hair or No Money

We make our guarantee without reservation—without strings It is absolute. We guarantee to stop falling hair. We guarantee to grow new hair in 90 days. Sometimes much sooner. But usually this treatment requires about 3 bottles of Van Ess. If we fail, your money back without question.

Note that your own druggist signs the guarantee with each 3-bottle purchase. Thus you assume no risk.

It is safe for us thus to guarantee the treatment. For experiments of years prove it effective on 91 heads in 100. Foremost authorities approve it. World noted dermatologists now employ it—some charge as much as $500 for the treatment.

We offer it, in correct form for home use, at the price of an ordinary "tonic."

The Infected Sebum

About 90% of all hair troubles are traced to infected Sebum. It is an oil that forms at the roots of the hair. Its natural function is to supply the hair with oil.

But it cakes on the scalp. It forms a breeding place for bacteria. It clings to hair and destroys it. It lodges in hair follicles and plugs them. Then germs by the millions start to feed upon the hair. Semi-baldness soon is marked. Then comes total baldness.

You can see this Sebum on your scalp, in the form of an oily excretion. Or, when dried, as dandruff. But it does not kill the roots. Hence when you remove it, new hair grows. This is scientific fact—medical authorities will tell you so. You must remove the infected Sebum.

Now We Remove It

For years, science experimented to combat infected Sebum. Finally a 90% effective treatment was found.

Now we have embodied it in a home treatment. It is called Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage.

It is applied a new way—a scientific way. (Note illustrations at right.) It penetrates to the follicles of the hair. It combats the Sebum and removes it. Results are marked. They are quick. It stops falling hair. It grows new hair.

We urge you to try this new way. We know the statements we make are amazing—almost incredible. But remember, we back them with an absolute guarantee.

There is a guarantee in the top of each package. Read it first before you buy. Note its fairness. Note that we let you be the judge.

Note the results yourself. Mark the healthy condition of your scalp—the freedom from dandruff. Look in your mirror—see for yourself.

Go today to any druggist's. Obtain the Van Ess 3-bottle treatment. With it you will get our guarantee, signed by the druggist from whom you buy it. Hence, it is folly not to try it.

Costs Nothing

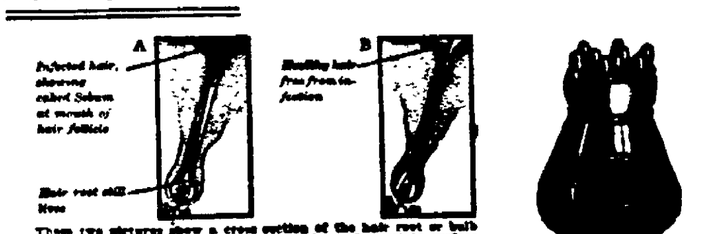

Unless we grow hair. The Van Ess 3-bottle treatment is absolutely guaranteed. You are the sole judge. The warrant is signed by your own druggist. All we require is his signature showing you have purchased a ninety-day treatment. If it fails, we refund your money. Hence you assume no risk making this test.

Note this New Way
—It Massages the Treatment Directly to the Follicles of the Hair

This patent applicator makes hair treatment, at home, possible for the first time. Blood alone revives. Treatment must reach the infected area under the surface. We accomplish it, as the illustration above shows, with hollow nipples of scientifically perfect rubber massage-cap which comes with every bottle of Van Ess Hair Grower. The lotion is fed directly to the follicles of the hair. At the same time the flow of blood is stimulated by massage to the hair root.

FRIENDS NOTICED IMPROVEMENT

Wonderful Results from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bethel, Wis.—My female trouble was brought on by overwork. I had worked in stores and had to do heavier work than my strength could stand, and had to be on my feet most of the time. Finally I had to give up this work entirely and stay at home. Doctor's medicine did not give me much relief, and my mother wanted me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took a couple of bottles of it and thought it did not help me as much as it should, so I gave it up to try something else. Nothing I took helped me much, so I finally decided to give the Vegetable Compound another trial and to take enough of it to make sure it would help me. I have taken it over a year now and it has brought wonderful results. I have gained from 93 to 110 pounds and am keeping house now. My friends all notice the change in my health. I will be glad to answer all letters that women write to me about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. W. G. MONSON, 1615 Park Ave., Beloit, Wis.

Mrs. Monson is willing to write to any woman suffering from such troubles.

BURLESQUERS AT RIALTO ON SATURDAY EVE

If you are looking for a high grade, big calibre, six-cylinder cast hooked up with a burlesque for the first order, and enhanced by a swift attractive and well nigh faultless chorus, it is presented by Broadway Belles which plays at the Rialto Theatre Saturday night, March 3rd. This is one of the biggest shows in every way on the Mutual wheel. Miss Alice Melville will keep you guessing from the beginning, while at the same time she wins your heart and puts you on the already long lists of her friends. No trouble about paying the war tax where she appears. When you look at her sweet lips, you know that sweet sounds will emanate therefrom and you are not mistaken. She has well been called the American Jenny Lind. Out in Los Angeles where she first won her way into public favor, they called her the mocking bird of the Orange Groves. The large audiences which are greeting Broadway Belles everywhere shows that a truly good show, with a carefully chosen cast, and a book that gives them a chance need never go on the rocks. Miss Alice Melville's support is worthy. Billy Hagan and Lew Lederer, Bert Mayfield, Billy Cochran, Anna Bebe, Myrtle Andrews and others. The music is catchy and has a jingle to it that sticks in the mind. The circuit has nothing stronger or more attractive than Broadway Belles.

CINCINNATI, March 1.—Combination of all motor bus lines in Cincinnati, under a merger embracing not only those operating in the city, but including those entering the city from other points as well, is to be attempted by financial interests said to be forming a company capitalized at $500,000.

How Many Women Are "Gimme" Wives?

By Adelaide Manola Hughes

(Mrs Rupert Hughes collaborated with her husband on the scenario of his latest Goldwyn picture entitled "Gimme," now showing at the Grand Theatre, which pictures the plight of the economically independent woman, suddenly become dependent through marriage, and faced with the necessity of constantly asking her husband for money. Mrs Hughes' own personal views on this subject are made clear in the following article.)

There are just as many fool men as there are fool women, financially speaking.

Is a wife to have a salary, a household wage or an allowance? "Allowance"—perish the silly childish word! "Allowance" is what one gives one's poor relation or one's boy at school.

A wife really should come higher than that. This may seem to be quibbling on a word only, yet you can keep a good wife down by the psychological effect of a mere word.

Or is a woman happier even though married, if she earns her own beans and beads on her own particular job?

It would seem that the death knell of the clinging vine woman has struck.

Since the war and since Suffrage "win" we women have developed a flare for the wage envelope in our own name.

The true millennium will never quite be reached, nor exact values between husband and wife established until we carry separate purses and no qustions askd.

An Eastern judge recently sentenced a wife to ten days imprisonment for stealing ten dollars from her husband's pockets. But a Western judge recently reprimanded a husband for bringing his wife to court on the same charge. His verdict was a justification of the act since the husband did not furnish her with sufficient money to make the act unnecessary.

The old comic paper drawings of the wives with their hands in the trousers pockets of their sleeping spouses are surely more pathetic than humorous, are they not?

There are three ways only for a woman to become economically independent, by inheritance, by her own labor, or by a generous and understanding adjustment of her financial affairs—an adjustment according to individual needs—whereby she may feel she is a part owner of whatever money there is and whereby she may never have to be humiliated in her love by becoming a "Gimme" wife.

Theatres

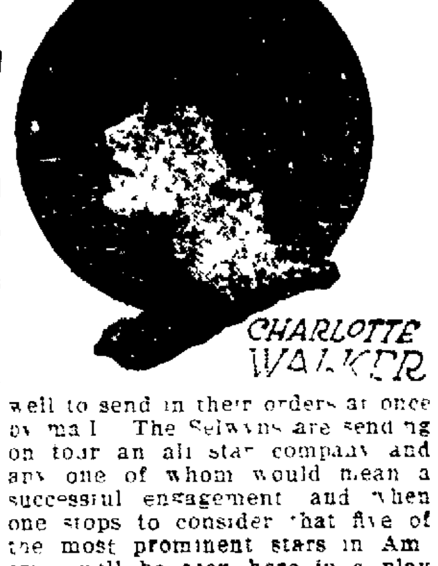

American—William (Bill) Fairbanks in "The Clean Up," a real five reel Western story. A minister settles in a tough section and tries his best to reform the inhabitants but with poor success until Jack Livingston, dare devil of the range stops a big fight that is in progress and compels the participants to go to church, and for the first time in their lives to get down on their knees to pray. The saloons are driven out and the owners engage in counterfeiting, but "Freshwater Jack" discovers and exposes them and ultimately wins the love and esteem of the heroine.

Grand—If you have not seen "Gimme" it will be worth your time. It has a vein of humor all the way, and tells of the trials of a young wife who marries a rich young man, but he fails to give her any money for clothing or household expenses. She tries to find a way out of her difficulties with disastrous results resulting in her leaving her husband who has become jealous of her efforts and misconstrues what she is trying to do. A reconciliation takes place at the finish of the picture.

Dreamland—Another episode in "The Timber Queen." There is also a feature picture "Without Fear" and a No. 1 comedy.

ALL STAR CAST IN THE CIRCLE AT RIALTO MON

The announcement of the advance sale for "The Circle" with an all star cast that will be the attraction at the Rialto Theatre next Monday night, March 5, has caused a great deal of interest. There is a large demand for seats from out of town patrons and those desiring to witness the performance will do well to send in their orders at once by mail. The Selwyns are sending on tour an all star company and any one of whom would mean a successful engagement and when one stops to consider that five of the most prominent stars in America will be seen here in a play that ran for one year in London, one year in Paris and one year in New York there is little wonder that the demand for reservation is so large. Included in the cast is Mr Wilton Lackaye, Mr Henry F. Dixey, Miss Amelia Bingham, Charlotte Walker and Norman Hackett. The piece is mounted in the elaborate manner characteristic of a Selwyn production. Seat sale Saturday.

COLUMBUS, March 1.—The Ohio Live Stock Shippers' association has elected Edward Taylor, Champaign county, president; Depew Head, Marion county, vice-president; E. G. Ketner, Columbus, secretary, and H. G. Beal, Madison county, treasurer.

"LEATHER PUSHERS" MAKES BIG HIT AT DREAMLAND THEATRE

Last night witnessed the first showing of "Young King Cole," the start of a new "Leather Pushers" series at the Theatre. Universal has gone its previous series one better and that is saying a great deal.

The first of the new series starts out with the Kid preparing for a big bout with a mysterious stranger, but refusing to take things serious. He goes forth on a rampage with a bunch of college chums and gets all "likkered up." His two fisted manager ties him in bed but the Kid fools em all and breaks loose again.

Fight night comes and a surprise trick is run in on the Kid. Again and again he kisses the floor, until in despair his manager grabs up the sponge, but the Kid looks up and winks and the sponge is withheld.

Reginald Denny is excellent as the Kid and Hayden Stevenson leaves nothing to be desired in his interpretation of the wise-cracking, though hard working manager. Director Pollard deserves a word of praise for the manner in which he handled this production.

ABOUT 200 ATTEND THREE F BANQUET

AMHERST, March 1. The supper and entertainment given by the Three F. class of the Congregational-Methodist Sunday school at the Congregational gymnasium last evening was a decided success.

About 200 were presented and first enjoyed a fine dinner cooked and served by the men and later a very interesting talk by Rev. F. L. Eastman on a moose hunt in Canada which he participated in. The pictures he intended to show of this hunt did not arrive, but all enjoyed his talk very much. Music was furnished by Krueman's orchestra.

Amherst School Building Is Given O.K.

AMHERST, March 1.—The local board of education today issued the following statement:

"The erection of a fine new building to meet the needs of the growth of the schools is an achievement of which any community may well be proud. It indicates a healthy interest in the development of those things which make for the general good.

"For us to insert at this time—a time when the new building is almost completed—an article stating negatively some of the fine points of the new building is a little out of the ordinary. It seems, however, than an article of this sort is necessary in view of the fact that a number of misunderstandings have arisen and been given circulation regarding the building.

"At the request of the board of education, two inspectors have been sent out from the State department. They report not only that there is no danger of defective workmanship or planning in any part of the building, but that the building is a very fine one, designed to serve well the school interests and to meet tests way beyond any that may ever be made upon it in the matter of architecture.

"The Columbus office spoke in the highest terms of the work of our architect, Mr. Sillsbee. They took up in detail each complaint that had been made regarding the building and found that in all cases but one there was no need even of making a further report. The building checked up with plans which had been gone over carefully by them and approved long before the local construction work was started. To show the thoroughness of the inspector's work and the excellence of the building, a report covering one item of the job is appended. "It will be noted that the structural work is strong beyond all possibility of overloading.

"We hope before long to be able to dedicate a new building at Amherst and to call attention at that time to some of the features of the new building which we think are very fine. As stated early in this article, this is a sort of negative report planned to put to rest any misgivings regarding the building from a structural standpoint. As the chief of the department said, 'You have a very fine building.'"

(Editor's Note—This report is not of general county importance. Those interested may see it at this office or by applying to the Amherst School Board.)

MY MARRIAGE PROBLEMS

Adele Garrison's New Phase of

Revelations of a Wife

Copyright, 1923, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

The "Bit of Advice" Lillian Gave Jim About Katie.

THERE was such sorrowful earnestness in Jim's honest voice as he declared his unwillingness to question Katie concerning the actions which had sent him into exile that I felt my throat constrict with pity—and admiration—for him. No knight of romance could have shown more loyalty to his liege lady's, none could have evidenced more delicacy and tenderness.

But underneath his brave exterior the poor chap was suffering tortures of uncertainty, an agony of mind which was only natural in view of the performances Katie had staged just before his going away. I motioned Katie to a chair near me, drew my own opposite Jim, and bent forward, holding his gaze steadily with mine.

"Jim," I began slowly, "I haven't words to tell you how much I admire the position you have just taken. Katie may thank her stars that she has so generous a husband, and I hope she never again will give you such pain as that she caused you before you went away. But it is much better that all that unhappy business should be cleared up. It will relieve your mind utterly—I can promise you that—and it will enable you to understand Katie better—and shield her from the consequences of an old misfortune which was no fault of hers."

"Oh, Jeem—Jeem!"

Jim looked at me with sudden startled comprehension.

"You can't mean, Mrs. Graham—"

"I mean this," I interrupted. "You went away because you had found out that Katie was stealing out to meet a man. You thought she no longer cared for you, that she loved someone else, and you—in your own words—'cleared out so as not to bother her.'"

"Oh, Jeem—Jeem!" Katie sobbed, and without taking his eyes from my face, he put out his hand, caught hers, and drew her into the sheltering circle of his arm.

Madge Explains.

"Now, the truth was this," I went on. "Katie was stealing out to meet a man, but she only went because of the most deadly terror a woman can feel. And the man she went to meet was the person on earth she loathes most, the man she has most cause to hate and fear, but who threatened to kill you and me and my little lad whom Katie loves so dearly if she did not get a certain paper for him—a paper containing an important government secret, which he thought was hidden in my father's room. It was only because Katie loved us all and feared for us that she went to meet the man of whom she was in such terror, and while she was very foolish not to tell you and me, yet we cannot blame her."

Jim's eyes were blazing with fury when I had finished.

"If I only had known, he never would have troubled her again unless his ghost came back," he said thickly. "I—I suppose it's that devil you told me about when Katie and I were married."

"Yes, Jim," I answered. "He is the man whom Katie married when she was just a child, and then found out that he had a wife. It was a merciful release for Katie, to know that he had no legal claim on her, for he was and is an abysmal brute, but you remember how she suffered when she asked me to tell you about that early mistake."

"I remember," he said, and I knew that Katie's humiliated anguish at that time was fresh in his mind. "And I remember I told her I'd take care of her and settle his hash if he ever turned up and tried to make her trouble. But I was sure he'd been killed in the war over there when she never heard nothing of him."

"It's a crime that he wasn't," Lillian struck in, "for he evidently has been doing the dirty work for a set of despicable plotters ever since. But I don't believe he'll ever be able to make any more trouble for anybody."

"Why?" Jim shot the monosyllable out imperatively.

In a few words I told him the story of the awful accident which had happened to Joe on the very evening of Jim's departure, and of the likelihood that he never would recover.

"That's some little comfort, anyway," he said grimly, and Katie again chanted her belief that Joe never would be innocuous until he was a corpse. Then Jim turned toward her, and looked at her steadily.

"Will you forgive me, Katie, girl?" he began, but Lillian interrupted him ruthlessly.

"Don't finish that, Jim," she commanded curtly. "Any man in the world under the same circumstances would have done what you did. Katie was a very foolish girl not to have told you of that man's threats. She's the one to ask forgiveness. And let me give you a bit of advice. Keep a tighter rein on her. You've let her have her own way too much."

ATTRIBUTE THEIR SUCCESS TO NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

In an interview today, Mr. Warren Wright, President of the Calumet Baking Powder Company, the largest Baking Powder Company in the World, strongly advocated the use of newspaper advertising, and points to Calumet's success as proof of his statement.

SALES 2 1-2 Times As Much

"Calumet sales are 2 1-2 times as much as any other brand" states Mr. Wright, "and we attribute this to our lavish use of newspaper space. We believe that the newspaper is the best direct medium we can use in telling our message to the housewife and we know from our experience covering thirty years that the housewife will respond to newspaper advertisements quicker than she will to any other form of advertising."

Newspapers Protect Readers

"The housewife has confidence in newspaper advertisements because they know that the newspapers set up high standards for their advertisers. It is for the reason that the housewife looks to the newspaper for information on products in which she is interested."

I Set Out to Find the Secret of Iron Muscles Like These

And Found That a Slight Change in Your Daily Meals Will Often Astonishingly Increase Your Strength, Energy, Endurance and Physical and Mental Power

Years ago, I made up my mind that there must be some vital secret that explained the great difference between the muscular strength, health and power of strong and weak people you meet every day. One man has muscles like iron, is full of strength and energy and hits hard both mentally and physically. Another is weak, anaemic and run-down. His day's work leaves him tired out and exhausted and he is always ailing, complaining and doctoring, without ever seeming to get any better.

For years I made a special study of these conditions consulting a great number of physicians and chemists. Science has now proved that your real strength, energy and endurance; that mysterious force that enables you to dominate and control others and win in every walk of life, all depend upon the strength and nature of the millions of cells that compose your body and brain, and the physical strength of these cells depends absolutely upon the food you eat—that is, the material with which they are built, just like a house that is built of boards and mud is not so strong as one built of stone and iron. The most important element in building strong forceful cells is a peculiar form of iron found in the husks of grains, peels and skins of certain fruits and vegetables, but modern methods of cooking throw these important things away so that today probably not one person in twenty has 100% iron in his body—a most alarming condition.

If you are anxious to build up your strength and bodily powers, you should at once try mixing a little of this peculiar form of iron with your daily food, to help build strong iron-like cells. Surprising results have been obtained in many cases, in two weeks' time. In fact a former medical inspector and clinical physician of the Board of Health of New York City said to me "There are countless numbers of men today who at forty are broken in health and steadily going downward to physical and mental decay. Yet there are thousands of the same men who undergo a remarkable transformation the moment they get plenty of iron into their blood." This newer form of iron is comparatively inexpensive and may be obtained from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron, to be mixed with your food as directed on each package. Do not make a mistake and get one of the old forms of metallic iron instead of Nuxated Iron, which is a totally different thing. Many a prizefighter has won championships because professional trainers know the secret of great strength and endurance which comes from having plenty of iron in your blood. It would seem that the average man would realize how much more important it is for him to build up his strength and resistance to disease and go right to the nearest druggist and get a package of Nuxated Iron. I guarantee that you will be delighted with amazing results or your own druggist will refund the full amount you paid.

How To Forget Troubles

TROUBLES knock up your system like Jack Dempsey knocks down his opponent.

Troubles deal blows both in the head and stomach—and they hurt the stomach more than they do the head!

Troubles give the stomach indigestion, slow up the liver—and then follow constipation and biliousness.

The way to get rid of troubles is to invigorate digestion, stimulate liver and bowels and tone up the entire system. The best way to do this—has been for the past 80 years—is to take Beecham's Pills.

Then you will feel so good that "troubles" become merely problems, to be solved readily by the clear, keen brain of health.
